

2014 SPRING CLASSES

Curtain Call Kids Junior

The Curtain Call Kids Junior classes are for kids that are 5-6 or are brand new and a little bit timid about being on stage. These classes will be all fun and games with the kids learning how to use their voice and body movement to become characters. There will also be some basic theater terms and skills taught. Kids will learn to get more comfortable on stage while learning to trust one another and work with each other. MAX of 12 kids

Ages: 5-6 Saturdays: March 22, 29, April 5, 12, 19, 26
8:30-9:30am $50

Curtain Call Kids Act 1

The Princess and the Pea. The Curtain Call Kids Act 1 class is for kids that are 7-9. These classes will teach basic theater terms and skills in a fun way. Kids will learn to trust one another and work with each other while on stage to give a more polished performance. We will be working with a small script and will perform the last 20 minutes of the last class. Max of 12 kids

Ages: 7-9 Saturdays March 22, 29, April 5, 12, 19, 26
9:30-10:30am $50

Curtain Call Kids Improv

Improvisation is a must for every performer. Improv Comedy helps to teach students to think on their toes. The rules we teach help with communication skills, confidence, leadership and listening skills. These classes always start with a lesson but quickly work into games and laughter!

Classes are held Tuesday Evenings starting March 25th ending May 13th
Ages 10-12: 5:30-6:30 Ages 13-17 6:30-7:30 $50

Curtain Call Kids Academy

The Academy classes are the core to the Curtain Call Kids curriculum. They are set up to give students a good foundation in acting by focus on one aspect of a theater performance. Students that complete academy will be able to participate in future Curtain Call Kids Projects and advanced classes. Max of 16 kids.
